Braxton Murphy joined Paliare Roland as an associate after working as a summer student and an articling student at the firm. Braxton has a growing civil litigation practice with a focus on professional regulation, labour and employment, commercial litigation, and defamation law.

Prior to joining the firm, Braxton conducted research in mental health law and worked in the civil litigation department of a prominent mental health hospital. As a law student at the University of Toronto, Braxton received awards for his advocacy in a labour arbitration competition and his writing on intersectional discrimination. In 2022, he earned his JD with distinction.
