Jesse Wright joined the firm after working as a summer student and an articling student, and has a diverse practice as a litigator and advocate. A collaborative, strategic and thoughtful problem-solver, Jesse draws on experience from her time in government, when she worked as press secretary in the Office of the Minister of Tourism, Culture and Sport.

At Queen's University law school, Jesse graduated on the Dean's Honours List in the top 10 percent of her class. She was a student case worker at the Queen's Prison Law Clinic, and she volunteered at Queen's Legal Aid. Jesse had the highest standing in administrative law and received the John Deakin Buckley Walton Scholarship in Administrative Law.
