Jodi Martin is a labour lawyer with significant experience in human rights and appellate advocacy. She assists union and institutional clients with judicial review applications and appeals, and she co-leads the firm's workplace investigations team.

Jodi has acted as counsel to various trade unions and police associations at grievance and interest arbitrations, mediations, and before the Human Rights Tribunal and Labour Relations Board. Her investigative skills were central to her role as co-counsel in the Motherisk Hair Analysis Independent Review. She regularly provides pro bono counsel through the Wellspring Cancer Support Network.
